

CHEW STOKE
HARVEST HOME
2023 HALL OF FAME

A lot of people have been involved in organising and helping to make Chew Stoke Harvest Home 2023 a success.

We'd like to name check ALL those involved and to say a big thank you for making Harvest Home the biggest community village event of the year!

Firstly, a thank you to all our visitors and Flower & Produce Show entrants (all 335 of them!)

Harvest Home 2023 trophy winners include:

- Fred Penney Salver for vegetables and flowers grown in Chew Stoke: Joint Richard Crane and Terry Smart
- Garrett cup for Vegetables and Flowers: Frank Bath
- Mr and Mrs Keel cup for floral art: Lucy Brown
- Jubilee cup for cookery and preserves: Jan Osborne
- Victoria Bowl for the best Victoria sandwich cake: Jan Osborne
- Jubilee village cup for young peoples classes: Fred Brown
- Dorothy Thompson Cup for the most exhibits: The Thorne family
- Blackwell Cup for collection of vegetables: Frank Bath
- Best in Show: Frank Bath's tomatoes

And all those who made Chew Stoke Harvest Home happen:

- Rev Ian Mills for opening the show.
- Chew Valley West Community Choir for their performance and leading a sing-a-long!
- Rachel Burgoyne, Liz Boyd, Hannah Huckman – for pulling together the best ever line up of stalls, food, entertainment and attractions.
- Cerian Adams – for organising the ever popular dog show (even though it was cancelled this year – to be rescheduled for October. Watch this space!)

- David Archer and Debbie Wakeford – David for keeping a careful eye on finances and managing our accounts and Debbie for being our company secretary.
- Penny Rowlands, Lucy Chalk, Ruth Donlevy, Katie Kingdon – for managing the tea tent team: Phil Chalk, Ruth Knight, Bryony Skipworth, Deborah Elsom, Nicola Kerr, Ruby Burgoyne, Caroline Baines. (And thanks to Anna Cooke for providing a fridge)
- Tom Attfield – our field coordinator for all the numerous jobs that it involves.
- Jason Molter – our electrical consultant and on-site electrician.
- Lucy Masters and Steve Davey – for publicising HH far and wide with wonderfully creative social media posts. Looking forward to seeing the 2023 photos too! Also Nick Farrar for preparing design for our new logo. And thanks to the Parish Mag team for publicity.
- Nicola Ainger and Coral Westaway – for great work obtaining event sponsors and donors
- Jill Baker for curating a wonderful Flower show tent display with her team: Tina Kilroy, Suzanne McDonald, Sarah Manville, Kate Tilling, Alison Farrar, Ruth Knight, Debbie Storey, Nicola Kerr, Lorraine Tromans, Clare Downey, Lucy Masters.
- Our man on the mic (and 'father' of Harvest Home) – Andrew Tromans

CHEW STOKE

HARVEST HOME

2023 HALL OF FAME

- Lisa Priday, Sue Lewis & Hayley Yells for the amazing display of entries from Chew Stoke Church School.
- Nicola Pushman for organising the races.
- Dave Jones and Lee Kilroy – for stocking and man-aging the bar and keeping the cider flowing!
- Phil Heath – our trusted transport manager/road- ie/fixer and everything else! Thank also to Eddie Heath for assistance.
- The Ogborne family – for providing the show- ground field, tractor power, water and hay bales.
- James/Billy Baker – for more tractor and farmer power!
- Luke and Mel Hasell – for assisting with our marquee transportation and storage and providing burgers.
- Krystian Winn - for providing and erecting those amazing flags that bring colour to the showground.
- Marquee Crew: Phil Heath, Andrew Tromans, Tom Donlevy, Chris Manville, David Mcdonald, Krystian Winn, Clive Warren, Ed Ogborne, Billy Baker, Phil Donlevy, Steve Davey, Lucy Masters, Des Richards, Coral Westaway, David Archer, Stuart Brown.
- Showday volunteers and set-up & clear-up volunteers: Matt Heard, Emily Heard, Sarah-Jane Streatfield James, Eddie Heath, Becky Heath, Jim and Barnaby Cullingford, Kate Tilling, Sally Jenks, Jamie Skipworth, Bryony Skipworth, Rob Burgoyne
- Sally Coleman, Louis Burgoyne, Rachel Williams, Katie Drury, Julian Smith, Rob Huckman.
- Chew Stoke Primary School PTA team for running the evening do and Promise Auction: Lucy Brown, Hayley Yells, Anna Cooke, Ewan Doswell, Tom and Sally Wilding, Pete and Katie Drury.
- Show day first aiders/medic volunteers: Ruth Knight, Jamie and Bryony Skipworth, Ruth & Phil Donlevy
- Chew Stoke W.I. for running the cake stall
- Chew Magna Society: Neil Smith and John Molinghen – for providing the PA equipment and technical support and providing cones!
- Ruth and Phil Donlevy for decorating Bryan's Archway at the showground entrance.
- The Stoke Inn team for providing Ploughman's lunches.
- Joanna Tiley and team (our main sponsor) for generous sponsorship and support.
- I.J. McGill Transport for providing the lorry stage.
- Felton Eccles for loaning the tug-of-war rope.
- Other generous sponsors included: Glynn's Solicitors, Yoga Chew Valley, Chew Valley PetHub, Lynne Joyner Fitness, Brock & Houlford, Pad Design.
- Geni Printing for certificates and schedules

PHEW THAT'S A LOT OF PEOPLE! ...

If you are interested in joining the team to help plan Harvest Home 2024, please get in touch with nickbakergb@gmail.com / Tel/Message: 07476 193354

www.chewstokeharvesthome.org.uk

Chew Stoke Harvest Home Ltd is a non-profit company. Reg: 01508480

We aim to cover all our show running costs every year. If we make any profit, we donate funds to good causes in our community