

CHEW STOKE HARVEST HOME LTD.

www.chewstokeharvesthome.org.uk

Welcome to the Harvest Home 2009.

Hedgehogs (where does that name come from?) is again the location for this year's event. We are grateful to the Rugby / Cricket clubs for letting us use this facility, especially after the state of the field due to the bad weather last year.

Just down the road, opposite the school, the horse show is being run (thanks once again to the Ogborne family for the use of their fields). We hope for better weather this year, as all last year's hard work by Carey and her team was washed away by the appalling weather and the horse show had to be cancelled.

Following the usual format, the bar will be open at 12 noon, with food available on the field from 12.30 onwards, followed by the Grand opening by the well known photographer Martin Parr, at 1.00pm.

As well as the main event, we will be running the popular Sunday Lunch in the marquee, that's if you survive Saturday evening where you can dance yourself to a standstill at the Ceilidh, also being held in the marquee. Tickets for both events will be available in the garage/shop.

As ever, the running of the event depends on the good will, good humour, and hard work of a group of people known as the committee, together with the numerous band of back up boys and girls. Thanks to you all!!

So let us hope that this year we will be blessed with good weather, both before and on the day, to make Chew Stoke Harvest Home 2009 a memorable vintage.

See you there.

Allen Marsh

Acting Chairman

A SPECIAL THANK YOU TO...

- The Methodist Church and St. Andrew's Church Hall for their loan of furniture
- Local householders surrounding Hedgehogs for their co-operation and tolerance
- Mr Lashenko for his kind donation of cakes for the tea tent and Lee Lashenko of The Stoke Inn
- Chew Valley Luxury Toilet Hire / Bristol Water plc.